PROSECUTION OF WAR UNTIL ULTIMATE SUCCESS IS SCORED

Decisive Battle When Japanese Push To West Of Canton-Hankow Line

GENERALISSIMO WARNS AGAINST RELAXATION OF EFFORTS

"THE WAR WILL BE PROSECUTED WITH RENEWED VIGOUR UNTIL ULTIMATE SUCCESS IS SCORED. . . . New military plans to cope with the situation have been laid down and everything in the military situation is turning out in accordance with China's strategy of winning the final victory. . . . The whole nation must exert its utmost efforts and make whatever sacrifices may be necessary to continue resistance in accordance with our pre-conceived plans."

"These statements, uttered by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in the course of an important telegram addressed to the People's Political Council, which opened its session at Chungking yesterday, put an end once and for all to the malicious rumours which have been spread, apparently by Japanese, to the effect that China intends to sue for peace. Peace at the present time would be welcomed by a desperate Japanese nation but, far from seeking peace, the Chinese Government is determined to fight to the bitter end."

CHIANG KAI-SHEK

As premeditated, the Generalissimo is quoted by the Central News as saying, "China's final victory will have to be won in a decisive battle to be fought with the whole strength of the nation when the Japanese have pushed to the west of the Peiping-Hankow Railway and the Canton-Hankow Railway."

Japan's invasion of south China, he went on to say, is a desperate adventure after suffering heavy blows from the Chinese during the last half year. He recalled that, during that period, they had suffered more than 300,000 casualties on the Yangtze River front, which compelled them to dispatch reinforcements five or six times. Realising the danger of the exhaustion of their strength in the long run, Japan then, in desperation, resorted to the invasion of south China with the intention of blocking China's outlet to the sea and cutting her route of munitions supply.

Nevertheless, the Japanese never expected that as a result of the new turn of events, China is able to gain an initiative in the war. New military plans to cope with the whole situation, Generalissimo asserted, had been laid down. The war would be prosecuted with renewed vigour until the ultimate success is scored.

DEADLY BLOW TO COME
Recalling that, at the outbreak of the war, China established the policy of reconstructing the western part of the country to make it a base for the resistance campaign and of unifying the country and continuing the resistance with determination and in self-reliance, the Generalissimo added that, in accordance with this policy, the war had been carried on with the hope that a re-birth of the nation would be realised under the most trying circumstances and that, in the extension of the war, China would inflict a deadly blow upon her enemy.

It was then conceived that China's belief of her final victory would come to realisation in a decisive battle to be fought with the concerted efforts and total strength of the whole nation when the Japanese had pushed to the west of the Peiping-Hankow Railway and the Canton-Hankow Railway. RAILWAY TOWNS ATTACKED

Hengyang, Oct. 28. Ichang, small town on the Canton-Hankow railway on the Kwangtung-Hunan border, and Chenhsien, fifty kilometres to the north, were attacked by nine Japanese planes at ten o'clock this morning. A total of between forty and fifty bombs were dropped at the two places causing unascertained damages.—Central News.

MURDER ATTEMPT IN KOWLOON

Officers of the C. I. D. are investigating a case of attempted murder which was reported in the Shamshui district last night. According to a police report a Chinese male was found in Kilung Street near Nam Cheung Street at 9.55 p.m. suffering from serious stab wounds. The man, whose name has not been ascertained and is aged about 25 years, was removed to the Kowloon Hospital. He has a stab wound in the left chest.

SPANISH WAR PROGRESS

Heavy Losses Reported

Barcelona, Oct. 28. A communiqué issued by the Republican War Ministry last night states that the Nationalist forces, strongly supported by artillery, attacked the south of Ciempuelos on the Central front yesterday but were repulsed, suffering heavy losses.

Five Nationalist planes bombed the harbour district of Barcelona yesterday morning.

The Nationalist Headquarters at Salamanca, in a communiqué, state that the Nationalists repulsed a violent Republican counter-attack on the positions captured by the Nationalists in the sector of Cuesta de Reina, on the Madrid front.

The Republicans suffered heavy losses and the Nationalist troops captured large quantities of war material.—Transocean.

RIFT IN LEAGUE SECRETARIAT

M. Marcel Hodeu Resigns

Geneva, Oct. 28. M. MARCEL HODEU, WHO has been M. Avenol's chief du cabinet since M. Avenol became Secretary-General of the League of Nations, has resigned at M. Avenol's request.

It is believed that the step heralds a further "purge" of those League officials holding Leftist views and "not" confirming M. Avenol's advocacy for the League Covenant reform.

M. Avenol is a strong adherent of the Munich Agreement and is credited with being in sympathy with those circles in London and Paris seeking reform in the League Covenant in the sense desired by the totalitarian Powers.

This has caused a rift between M. Hodeu and M. Avenol and the split in the League Secretariat is based on their respective alignments and is likely to result in the retirement of those of M. Hodeu's way of thinking.—Reuter.

RESUMPTION OF ANGLO-JAPANESE TALKS

Over Two Hundred Claims Await Settlement

Shanghai, October 28. Opposition has arisen among Foreign Office officials in Tokyo to the expected resumption of conversation for settlement of pending Anglo-Japanese issues, according to a Tokyo report.

The conversations were begun several months ago between the former Foreign Minister, Gen. Kato, and the British Ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie. Six separate conferences were held before General Ugaki resigned, but very little progress towards a settlement of the 200-odd British claims is reported to have been made.

Upon his assumption of the Foreign Affairs portfolio, Premier Kono let it be known that he would make no effort to continue the negotiations with Sir Robert Craigie, unless he was expressly requested to do so.

Moved by these developments, the British Ambassador is understood to have requested a resumption of the negotiations. Some officials of the Foreign Office favoured the proposal, giving rise to the report that the conferences would be resumed soon.

The Premier himself has been non-committal. He is not opposed in principle to readjustment of Anglo-Japanese relations, but is said to hold a set of opinions entirely different from those of General Ugaki. Moreover, the China campaign and domestic matters are a heavy drain on his time, and he also considers the conditions for resumption of the negotiations a matter of great importance to Japan.

NEW FOREIGN MINISTER
The Premier, Prince Kono, has decided to appoint a full-time Foreign Minister as soon as an acceptable candidate can be found to relieve him of his concurrent duties in foreign affairs. Although it had been generally supposed that the Premier was resigned to retaining the post concurrently, actually he has never completely adopted the idea. Now, with the South China campaign launched and the capture of Hankow, Japan's international relations are becoming more and more complex and the attention of a full-time Foreign Minister is urgently needed.—International News.

SIR ROBERT CRAIGIE

WILL FIGHT TO BITTER END

General Yu Han-mou, Pacification Commissioner of Kwangtung, has sent a brief wire to Chinese residents in Hongkong and other foreign countries pledging his life for continued resistance against Japanese invasion, says Central News.

Despite setbacks at the hands of the Japanese, General Yu stated in his telegram that the spirit of his troops has been further sharpened and they are now more determined than ever to fight the enemy.—Central News.

NEW TRANSPORT BYE-LAW IN LONDON

Interesting Figures In Report

London, Oct. 28. Beginning next year any person who does not follow a queue in waiting for a bus will be prosecuted, according to a new bye-law of the London Passenger Transport Board.

The report of the Board shows some interesting figures in London's transportation. During the past year 300,000,000 persons went to theatres and cinemas while 7,500,000 watched League football and a similar number visited the museum and art galleries. There were 2,000,000,000 passengers in buses.—Reuter.

FRANCO-GERMAN DECLARATION

Paris, Oct. 28. The new French Ambassador to Italy who was recently Ambassador to Germany is bringing a draft Franco-German declaration which, it is understood, will be more precise than the pronouncement made by Mr. Chamberlain and Herr Hitler after the Munich Agreement.

The draft has been submitted to M. Daladier, French Premier, and as it is understood that it will be issued in final form next month.—Reuter.

Beginning Of New Chapter In Sino-Japanese Hostilities

MR. LIN SEN

Important Session Of People's Political Council

Chungking, October 28. THE SECOND PLENARY SESSION OF THE PEOPLE'S POLITICAL COUNCIL opened here to-day with about 100 of a total of 194 delegates present.

Particular importance attaches to the meeting as Chinese circles regard it as marking the beginning of a new chapter in the Sino-Japanese hostilities with the fall of Hankow and Canton.

It is understood that the preliminary business at to-day's meeting included the Chairman, Mr. Wang Ching-wei's report on the latest military situation and an assurance to the Council delegates that the Chinese Government is determined to carry on resistance which announcement was greeted with thunderous applause.—Reuter.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS
The importance of a united front, with China's 450,000,000 people solidly behind the Government, is again stressed by Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, in his address.

Mr. Lin pointed out that the gathering itself, with representatives from all parts of the country attending and discussing the nation's momentous issues, is very proof of the harmony and unity of a determined China which will assure her final victory in the great struggle of her history.

Mr. Lin thanked the members for having travelled to Chungking to attend the meeting. He believed that with such dauntless spirit, decisions of far-reaching

NEW TACTICS

Changsha, Oct. 28. Chinese military authorities declare that with the fall of Hankow and Canton, the Chinese Command is adopting new military tactics.

They will emphasise on nationwide mobile warfare, engaging the Japanese in all parts of China, as they are reported to be doing now in Shansi.—Reuter.

SIMPLE CEREMONY

Chungking, Oct. 28. The session opened with a simple, formal ceremony. On the dais were Mr. Chang Po-ling, Vice-Chairman of the People's Political Council, Mr. Chu Chen, Mr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan, Mr. Wang Ching-wei, Deputy Chief Executive of the Kuomintang and concurrently (Continued on Page 9)

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF

Claim For Possession Of Premises

Judgment was given for the plaintiff, Wong Chun, trading as the Cheong Hing Loong firm in an action for the possession of No. 124, Johnstone Road against the Kwong Sang Cheong before Mr. E. H. Williams, Acting Puisne Judge, at the Summary Court yesterday.

Mr. S. Quinn appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. C. A. Sutherland for the defendant. Mr. Ng Quinn said that the premises in question was the property of the Toishan Chamber of Commerce and the plaintiff, who was the principal tenant, was recently asked to give up the tenancy of No. 118, Johnstone Road. As a result, plaintiff had to ask defendant to give up possession of No. 124, Johnstone Road.

Plaintiff, in evidence, stated that he was the sole proprietor of the Cheong Hing Loong firm. The Kwong Sang Cheong firm had rented No. 124, Johnstone Road from him last year. Witness had been the occupant of No. 118, Johnstone Road for 11 years but despite this he was given notice to quit.

The defendant, Kwong Sang Cheong, carried on business as a grocery store. On October 23, witness went to the Kwong Sang Cheong but had not noticed any beds in the store to make the place a dwelling place. Only goods were kept in the store, said witness. On October 23, he went personally to the store and handed defendant notice to quit the premises.

Cross-examined by Mr. Russ, witness said that he was now living at No. 117, Bonham Strand, and had lived there since he moved from No. 118, Johnstone Road. He was paying a monthly rental of $50 for the ground floor. Witness denied that he wanted No. 124 Johnstone Road to sublet to another party at a higher rental. The reason he wanted the premises was because he intended to move his business into these premises.

GOODS IN GODOWN

Witness stated that at present his goods were kept in a friend's godown. He did not know that the defendant used No. 124 as a dwelling place besides carrying on business there. He paid $45 to the Toishan Chamber of Commerce as rent for the premises in question and sublet it to the defendant at $60 a month. Later his landlords increased the rent of No. 124, Johnstone Road to $55 and he, in turn, asked defendant to pay $70.

Witness admitted that he was making $15 profit all along, but denied having tried to increase defendant's rent to $90, adding that had he not received notice to quit his premises, he would not have asked defendant to quit No. 124, Johnstone Road.

Both defendant and his wife gave evidence to the effect that the premises were used partly as a dwelling place and partly as a shop. They stayed there with their three children and an ayah, they said.

His Lordship, giving judgment for the plaintiff, ordered that defendant give up possession on or before December 1.

Mr. Russ gave formal notice of appeal.

MERCHANT'S BIG ESTATE

Probate to the will of Yuen Yuck-chee, merchant who died at the age of 69 on August 28, 1938 at No. 6, Kui Yan Lane, Taihang, has been granted to his two sons, Yuen Wing-cho, retired merchant, and Yuen Tat-cho, engineer. The value of the estate is $231,900.

Probate to the will of the late James Ramsay, who died on board the Empress of Asia, while the vessel was off Yokohama on June 19, 1938, has been granted to Graeme Sisson Hugh-Jones, solicitor. The value of the estate is $22,000.

Sequel To Motor Accident

Fines of $5 and $30 were imposed by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Court yesterday on a student, Phillip Chung, who was charged with driving, while yet a learner, without being accompanied by a licensed driver, and with failing to report an accident in Castle Peak Road on October 15 when a child was knocked down. The child later died.

Mr. C. D'Almada, who appeared for Chung, pleaded that his client had suffered much mental agony and anguish and also the ignominy of being detained for one night in a police station.

His client pleaded guilty to both charges, said Mr. D'Almada. He had made a lengthy statement to the police, which included one discrepancy, that he had been so frightened that he claimed the lady sitting beside him at the time of the accident was his mother, who, at one time, had a driver's licence.

On behalf of his client, Mr. D'Almada wished to apologise to the Court for this one discrepancy. The lady mentioned was not the defendant's mother, and the defendant's mother did not have a driver's licence.

TRAFFIC CASES

For driving a lorry in Nathan Road at a speed in excess of 15 miles per hour, Signalman T. Valla, of Whitefield Barracks, was fined by Mr. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

For dangerous driving and for failure to report a collision with a lamp post, Lucius Stale, of the Middlesex Regt., was fined $10. For leaving her car unattended

DANGEROUS DRIVING

European Fined At Central

L. Glendinning, residing at No. 7, Wang Fung Terrace, was summoned before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Court yesterday for driving a car in a manner dangerous to the public along Queen's Road Central on October 16.

Mr. J. T. Prior appeared on behalf of the defendant and pleaded guilty. Traffic Inspector Saunders told the Court that defendant, who was travelling eastward along Queen's Road Central, just outside the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, collided with an on-coming vehicle, striking the mudguard. Defendant was well over the crown of the road, it was stated.

A fine of $20 was imposed.

CARELESS DRIVING

Pleading guilty to summons for driving without due care and caution along Lockhart Road, Wong Cheung, a lorry driver, was fined $10.

Sub-Inspector A. V. Baker said that defendant swerved across the road into a garage without giving any signal.

In Salisbury Road, Mrs. Watson was fined $5.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

THE KINGSHIP OF CHRIST

The celebration of the feast of the Kingship of Christ is intended, by the Catholic Church as an affirmation of the authority of Christ over mankind. It is a comparatively new feast, for it was established in these latter days when a revolt against authority has led to the world's greatest ills. All the liturgy of the feast is directed to the one point, that all be led to repeat their acknowledgment of Christ as the supreme Ruler of men, and that in giving their submission to Him they pledge themselves anew to obedience to His law.

The feast is celebrated now as one of the most important in the year. In the Catholic Cathedral there will be Pontifical High Mass at 8 a.m. and during the entire day there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. In the evening, at 4.30, there will be a solemn Procession, followed by sermon and Benediction.

ALL SOULS' DAY

Tuesday, the first day of November, will be All Saints' Day, and the following will be the Commemoration of the Dead, or All Souls' Day. This is the day set apart for the remembrance of all the dead. On that day priests may celebrate Mass three times so that the dead may receive all possible benefit from the Masses and prayers.

The Catholic honour for the dead is closely bound up with the doctrine of purgatory, for those dead who benefit by prayers offered for them are those who are waiting in purgatory for their final release and admission into heaven.

On All Souls' Day, at 5 p.m. there will be the usual impressive ceremonies at the Catholic Cemetery in Happy Valley, when all unite in prayers for the dead, especially for the souls of those who are buried in the cemetery.

AUTHOR OF CHINA CATHOLIC CHURCH HISTORY

The death occurred recently in England of Rev. Bertram Wolferstan, S. J., the author of a "History of the Catholic Church in China."

His death recalls an unusual event that took place in December 1891. Early one morning in that month, a Lieutenant of the Royal Navy called on the Jesuit father in charge of the Catholic Church at Barbados, British West Indies, and asked to be received into the Catholic Church. The priest explained that a course of instruction was necessary, and began to make suggestions as to how it could be given, when the young Lieutenant explained that he had studied the whole matter fully for nine years.

and was not only convinced of all the Catholic truths, but was ready to answer any question on doctrine that the priest might choose to put to him.

The priest took him at his word and questioned him on all the main points of doctrine, with the result that he admitted that he was fully prepared for baptism. The officer requested that he should be baptised at once, and this was done. After the ceremony he further explained that he was fasting and would like to receive Holy Communion. The priest agreed to this, and said that as he was just about to celebrate Mass, the young man then offered to serve the Mass, for he had not only taught himself from books how to serve Mass, but had learned all the prayers by heart.

So determined a convert was bound to be a very resolute Catholic, and so he proved. A year after his baptism he entered the Jesuit novitiate, and after his ordination to the priesthood taught in various colleges in England. He served as a chaplain during the war, and was practically an invalid for the rest of his life as a result of his war service. It was during these years that he wrote several books. His history of the Catholic Church in China reveals an extensive knowledge of his subject. It was in fact true that he read everything that was known to be published on the subject, and what he wrote was not only well documented but written in a most attractive style.

As a young naval officer he had served in the same ship as King George V and Admiral Jellicoe. He had the navy in his blood, for on his mother's side he was of the family of Lord St. Vincent.

GRANDSON OF SLAVE EMANCIPATOR

The last grandson of William Wilberforce, the emancipator of the slaves, died recently, at Bath at the age of 91. He was Mr. Henry Edward Wilberforce, whose father was connected with Newman at the time of the Oxford Movement and entered the Church shortly after him. Two more of William Wilberforce's sons were also received into the Catholic Church, and the fourth, who did not follow them, became the Anglican Bishop of Oxford, and afterwards of Winchester.

Mr. Henry Wilberforce, whose death suggested these references, had other connections with the Oxford Movement, for his wife was a granddaughter of one of the Canons of Canterbury who was received into the Church at the time of Newman, while one of his sisters married Hurrell Froude, a nephew of the other Hurrell Froude, one of the Oriel Tractarians. The deceased man had been a friend and secretary of the last Duke of Norfolk for many years and was associated with many Catholic activities.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hongkong.

SUBJECT—EVERLASTING JUDGEMENT

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches, to-morrow, October 30 will be "Everlasting Punishment."

The Golden Text will be "Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy; when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me." (Micah 7.8)

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible:—"Hear thou, my son, and be wise and guide thine heart, in the way. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof." (Proverbs 23:19)

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"Man's wisdom finds no satisfaction in sin, since God has sentenced sin to suffer. Every supposed pleasure in sin will furnish more than its equivalent of pain, until belief in material life and sin is destroyed. The sharp experiences of belief in the suppositious life of matter, as well as our disappointments and ceaseless woes, turn no like tired children to the arms of divine Love. Christian Science commands man to master the propensities—to hold hatred in abeyance with kindness, to conquer lust with chastity, revenge with charity, and to overcome deceit with honesty." (pages 322, 6, 405).

Stop That COUGH OR COLD

WHEN your throat is sore and your eyes watery; when you can't stop coughing and sneezing and you're thoroughly lost in a cold, a Pepp in your mouth brings wonderful relief.

These wonderful breatheable tablets will also check the worst cough or cold before it settles on your chest and turns to bronchitis. Pepp give off rich, medicinal essences which soon search out and overcome cold and flu germs. Pepp soothe the throat and inflamed air-tubes. They cut choking phlegm and strengthen and invigorate your chest and lungs.

Said Will Commence In November

Rome, Oct. 28. It is reported here that November 15 is the date tentatively fixed for the beginning of the Anglo-Italian Agreement.

Lord Perth, British Ambassador, called on Count Ciano, Italian Foreign Minister, yesterday to convey the result of the British Cabinet deliberations.

It is stated that Britain has agreed to consider Italy's recent withdrawal of 10,000 volunteers from Spain as effecting the required settlement in Spain, and to bring the agreement into force immediately.

Count Ciano is expected to communicate this to Signor Mussolini and to see Lord Perth again before finally approving the scheme.

PREMATURE

London, Oct. 28. The Rome reports are considered in certain circles in London as a premature announcement attempting to force a conclusion of the Anglo-Italian Pact. A parliamentary debate is still needed before the term "settlement of the Spanish conflict" can be defined.

It is stated, however, that the British Government is anxious to conclude the pact at the earliest possible moment. The Government is anxious that when Parliament meets, it will be able to present the most favourable terms for its consideration.—Reuter.

HUNGARY REASSERTS DEMANDS

Strongly-Worded Note To Czechs

Budapest, Oct. 28. The latest Czech proposals for a solution to the frontier dispute with Hungary were considered at a meeting of the Cabinet this morning. Later it was learned that a strongly-worded note was sent to Prague.

It is understood that the note reasserts Hungary's demand for a full settlement of the dispute on the lines laid down in the previous note.

It is believed that it stipulates that Czech troops shall evacuate within the next four or five days 10,000 square kilometres of territory. Prague has already agreed to Hungarian troops marching in progressively as the Czech troops retire.

There is objection to the inclusion of Rumania, as suggested by Prague, among the arbitrators on the disputed region of Ruthenia.—Reuter.

CZECHS FORM NEW NATIONAL PARTY

Prague, Oct. 28. The formation of a large Czech National Party, which has been discussed by all political circles during the past few days, is to be carried out with all possible dispatch. It was announced here last night.

According to present plans, the Party will be formed through the fusion of the hitherto largest party, the Czech Agrarian Party, with the National League, the Industrialist Party and the People's Socialist Group. It is stated that all four parties are willing to amalgamate, the first two without reservations and the latter two insisting upon certain conditions.

Youth is to be given special status in the new National Party through representation, the object being to stress in this manner the role of youth in the reconstruction of the state.—Transocean.

YUGOSLAV LEADER ARRESTED

Belgrade, Oct. 28. Dimitrije Ljotich, former Yugoslav Cabinet Minister and founder of the Nationalist movement, and several of his followers were arrested in Belgrade yesterday.

Ljotich had intended to stand as candidate for the opposition at the forthcoming parliamentary elections.

According to an announcement by the Home Minister, Ljotich was arrested for inciting his followers to attack the police.—Transocean.

Lord Stanhope Becomes First Lord Of Admiralty

EARL DE LA WARR IN CHARGE OF EDUCATION

London, October 28.

The King held a meeting of the Privy Council at Buckingham Palace yesterday at which new Members of the Cabinet took the oath. Lord Stanhope is the new First Lord of the Admiralty, in succession to Mr. A. Duff Cooper, who resigned during the European crisis, and Earl De La Warr, hitherto Lord Privy Seal, becomes President of the Board of Education in succession to Lord Stanhope.

The appointment of a member of the House of Lords as head of a department which is to expend £125,000,000 this year is certain to give rise to strong opposition and criticism.

The Opposition will also object to the fact that all navy questions and debates in the House of Commons will have to be answered henceforth by the Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty, or the Civil Lord of the Admiralty, both of whom are Junior Ministers.

The vacant post of Lord Privy Seal will be left open for there is a possibility of an appointment of major importance. The holder of this post has often been called upon to undertake special duties, and it is thought that the delay in filling it is due to Mr. Chamberlain's wish to secure the best man for some special purpose.

Lord Stanhope's appointment should be popular with the Ministers by whom he is much liked, while Earl De La Warr's promotion is in accordance with expectations.—Reuter.

CHANGES NOT SO GREAT

London, Oct. 28. The eagerly-awaited announcement yesterday of the new appointments to Cabinet posts showed that the changes were not so great as had been anticipated.

The new First Lord who is 57 years of age, has belonged to the Cabinet since 1936, having first held the office of First Commissioner of Works and since last year that of President of the Board of Education.

Since 1937, he has also been Leader of the Government Parties in the House of Lords.

Before joining the Cabinet, Lord Stanhope was Parliamentary Under-Secretary for several Ministries, including the Foreign Office, and was also Civil Lord of the Admiralty and Financial Under-Secretary to the Admiralty.

He belongs to the Conservative Party and has the reputation of being a devoted follower of Mr. Chamberlain.

Earl De La Warr is now 37 years of age and is the youngest member of the Cabinet. He belongs to the National Labour Party formed by the late Mr. Ramsay MacDonald after his breach with the Labour Party in 1931.

He has served as Parliamentary Under-Secretary to the Board of Education, to the Ministry for Agriculture and to the Colonial Office. He joined the Cabinet as Lord Privy Seal in 1937.

Despite his youth, he served in the war in the navy. He represented the British Government at

CHINESE JUNKS EXHIBITED

"Indomitable." Says Ambassador

London, Oct. 28

"I think there is something indomitable about these junks and I am glad to assure you that there is something indomitable about China," said Dr. Quo Tai-chi, Chinese Ambassador in London, speaking at the opening of the Exhibition of Chinese junks yesterday at the Science Museum, amid loud applause.

Dr. Quo said that, as a Chinese, he felt very happy that the junk models were there as a token of the numerous mutual interests and close ties of friendship existing between Britain and China.

The Ambassador dwelt on the skill of the Chinese junk builders and the accuracy of the models on view. Like Brixham trawlers and Thames luggers, they stood for skilled individuality of construction and individual personality of operation.

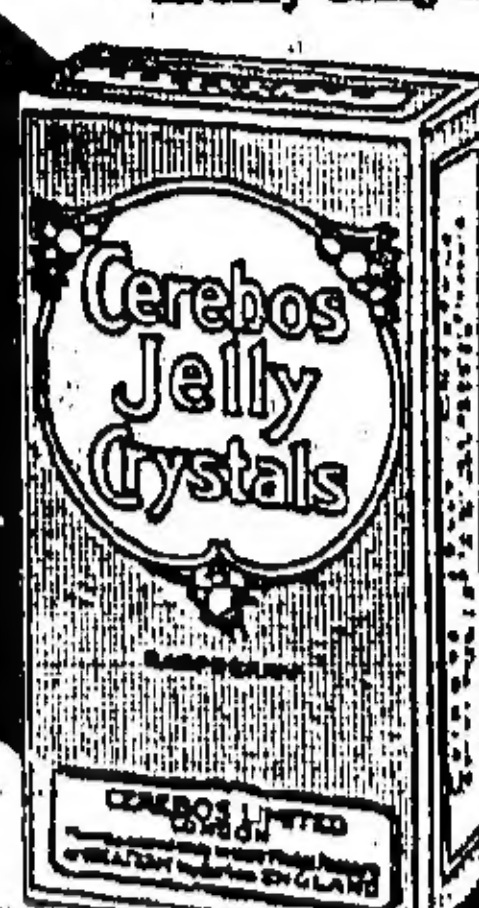

PRAISE FOR MAZE

In the course of his speech, Dr. Quo paid a special tribute to Sir Frederick Maze, Inspector-General of the Chinese Maritime Customs, who, he said, had rendered China "invaluable" service, not only as a civil servant but as a public-spirited individual.—Reuter.

Pretty Naval Wedding At Cathedral

CMDR. KING AND MISS BILLINGS

St. John's Cathedral, in the early afternoon yesterday, was the setting for a pretty wedding, when the Dean of the Cathedral, the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, assisted by the Rev. W. Williams, R.N., of H.M.S. Medway, united in marriage Miss Brenda Grace Billings and Commander Hugh Valentine King, R.N.

Miss Billings is the daughter of the late Mr. Frederick Walter Billings and Dr. Grace Billings, of Cheltenham, England. The bride walked down the aisle on the arm of Captain C. B. Barry, D.S.O., R.N., of H.M.S. Medway. She was attired in a simply-tailored white chiffon gown over which she wore a silver metal thread brocade coat cut on "duchesse" lines. The robe was cut with accented stand-up collar and leg-o-mutton sleeves, the skirt reaching the floor and forming a slight train in the rear. The cream silk tulle veil, which was attached to the bride's head by a halo of orange blossoms, was quite full, and fell to the hem of her attractive gown. She carried a bouquet of lilies, white roses, and greens.

THE BRIDESMAIDS

Miss Bunty Drummond, one of the two bridesmaids attending, was charmingly attired in a gown of dusty red chiffon, smart in its simple tailoring, and accented by a full flared skirt. A halo of the same colour and material adorned her hair.

The other bridesmaid, Miss Suzanne Compton, was in bluish grey chiffon, also with full skirt, and with a halo of blue chiffon adorning her hair.

After a beautiful solo rendering of "Ave Maria," the bride and groom left the Cathedral under an archway of swords formed by the officers of H.M.S. Medway and H.M.S. Perseus.

Lieut.-Commander P. Q. Roberts, of H.M.S. Perseus, was the best man.

A reception was later held on board H.M.S. Medway. The honeymoon will be spent at Fanling.

SOON TO WED

The following forthcoming marriages are announced:—Mr. Li Chuck-hoy, residing at No. 14, Knutsford Terrace, ground floor, and Miss Leung Hop-ye, residing at No. 11, St. Francis' Yard, second floor.

Mr. Ng Hong-yat, Sanitary Inspector residing at No. 30, Yik Yam Street, second floor, and Miss Chiu Yuet-hing, teacher, residing at No. 233, Gloucester Road, second floor.

THE ROMANTIC SCHOLAR

MR. HERBERT TONG who portrays the role of "Chang Kung" romantic scholar in a scene from "Romance of the Western Chamber" which will be presented at the Queen's Theatre next week by the Hongkong Chinese Women's Club.

ROMANCE OF WESTERN CHAMBER

ABOVE, MISS MEI UNG, (right) as "Ying Ying," the demure daughter of the Prime Minister, and Mrs. Elsie Soong, as "Hung Kiang," her vivacious handmaid, as they appear in the Chinese drama "Romance of the Western Chamber" which will be presented by the Hongkong Chinese Women's Club, at the Queen's Theatre on November 1, 2 and 3. Booking at the Queen's Theatre is now open.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE BALL

The Ball at Government House last night was a brilliant success, some 800 guests being present. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, K.C.M.G., and Lady Northcote received the guests at the foot of the stairs and dancing went on till 1 a.m. while those keen on bridge were catered for upstairs, from the Crush Hall.

The grounds presented a brilliant spectacle being lit with hundreds of multi-coloured lights, the hall itself being decorated in the usual dignified manner.

Amongst the guests were His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General A. W. Bartholomew and Mrs. Bartholomew, members of the Consular Body, members of the Executive and Legislative Councils and many of the Colony's leading residents.

SOPHISTICATE (DUCHESS OF WINDSOR, GLORIA MORGAN VANDERBILT)

Her physical characteristics are a trim, slender figure, irregular but striking features, sleek coiffure. She is a career woman, restless, a doer, impatient, easily bored, a city woman, and likes night life.

The sophisticate wears severely tailored suits. Proud of her streamlined figure, she re- (Duchess of Windsor) veals it with a sheath silhouette, always going to breath-taking extremes.

Her hats are small, mad, and may be inspired by anything from a French telephone to a strawberry basket. She likes lacquered surfaces, starched lace, bequins, satins, and especially unrelieved black dresses.

Sometimes her black is brightened by a brilliant splash of colour or white.

ASTROLOGICALLY ADVISED

Mr. Leslie Hore-Belisha's horoscope is comparable in every way with that of Benjamin Disraeli. If he makes the right use of the incredible vitality and energy he possesses, he will be Prime Minister.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain is in for a great personal success in the spring of 1939, when Jupiter is in conjunction with his Sun, but shortly afterwards there will be a danger moment of first-class importance for Britain (June-July 1939) and not for Britain only.

There will be danger of war, but freewill rules, and the danger is not inevitable. Skilled statesmanship can avoid it. Mussolini will reach the highest point in his career in 1939.

Hilder is "astrologically advised." There will be a crisis round one of Germany's leading men in Jan., 1939, and a world known personality will be wounded, if not killed. In 1942 most things will have changed in the Reich.

Gandhi will not survive the first half of 1939.

NOTICE TO PLUMBERS

The following is an extract from the Waterworks Ordinance 1938, which will come into force on the 1st of January, 1939:—

REG. 10. LICENSING OF PLUMBERS.

"Every person, except the authorized officers of the water authority, who intends to carry out for a consumer any work in connection with the construction, alteration or repair of inside services or fire services which are to deliver water, supplied from the waterworks must first obtain a licence from the water authority on Form B.

"Such licence will be granted only to persons (or to firms employing persons) who hold certificates from any of the following:—

The Royal Sanitary Institute, The Institute of Plumbers, The City and Guilds of London, or to persons (or firms employing persons) who, in the opinion of the water authority, possess other suitable qualifications.

"Such licence shall be for one year or part of one year in the first instance, and shall be renewable annually on the 1st of January at the discretion of the water authority, and subject to the payment in advance of the fees laid down in Appendix 1. The water authority may revoke any licence at any time, without compensation to the holder, in the event of the holder acting in any way contrary to the provisions of these regulations."

In the case of a firm one licence in the name of the firm will be sufficient.

Will all those firms desirous of obtaining a licence please apply in writing to the Water Authority before the 30th of November, 1938, when their applications will be considered by the Water Authority.

Any further information may be obtained at the Office of the Water Authority.

U.S. BLUFFED

CONSIDERABLE INTEREST is being evinced as to what the United States Government proposes to do in connection with the high-handed action of the Japanese authorities in Shanghai in preventing the shipment of a consignment of silver worth U.S. $4,500,000 to America on board the Dollar s.s. President Coolidge.

The fact that the sailing of a neutral American vessel was delayed and that the silver on board, which was in every sense legal cargo, had to be unloaded at the point of the Japanese bayonet was a glaring breach of international law but the question has been raised.

WHAT IS INTERNATIONAL LAW?

"What is international law?" Laws are made to be enforced but in the case of international law, who is going to enforce it? If it cannot be enforced, how then can it properly be laid down as law? Unless the governments concerned themselves decide to take the law into their own hands and break what is known as international law, it cannot be enforced.

TO THE JAPANESE, who have come to regard international law, and solemnly-concluded treaties as mere scraps of paper, the so-called sanctity of international law means nothing. To them, the law of might is the law of right.

In the case of the silver on the President Coolidge, the Japanese chose a course of bluff and they managed to get away with it. America fell right into their arms. True, the Japanese were not successful in obtaining, JAPANESE possession of the pre-FAIL IN CLOSURE CONSIGNMENT ON OBJECT which they had cast.

As they had hoped, JAPANESE possession of the pre-FAIL IN CLOSURE CONSIGNMENT ON OBJECT which they had cast. covetous eyes, but they did succeed in forcing it to be returned to the vaults of the Chase National Bank in Shanghai under the guard of a group of the U.S. Marines. Having almost exhausted her own gold and silver reserves, it is not surprising that Japan should try to seize as much as she can from China. She has already demanded China's silver stocks in the Tientsin foreign concessions.

NEGOTIATIONS CONDUCTED by the American Consul-General with the Japanese were of no avail (no protests to the Japanese are of any avail these days), and the Customs permit cancellation orders, reported to have been signed by the Japanese Commissioner,

CORRESPONDENCE

"COUNTRY FIRST"

(The Editor, "Hongkong Daily Press")

Sir—I have read with much interest and with not a little sorrow your excellent report of the proceedings of the Hongkong Y's Men's Club at their weekly meeting held yesterday.

As an old patriotic Chinese gentleman of Hongkong, allow me in the first place to tender to Dr. F. R. Brown, of the Canadian Church Missionary Society, my high appreciation and thanks for his wonderful work and survey made in the cause of China.

From the report published, it would appear that the poor injured or wounded soldiers of China's gallant army are badly in need of professional medical services for their relief, and as the doctor has told us, many must have died merely because of the want of the necessary professional medical attendance.

Such being the case, it will be perhaps illuminating to your many readers that, in the Hongkong Government Gazette of May 6 last, you will find that amongst the 263 names of persons qualified to practice medicine and surgery in Hongkong, exclusive of Government, Army and Navy doctors, no fewer than 192 are Chinese, who, in my opinion—at least the majority of whom—should long ago have tendered their services to the Chinese Government during the present national crisis.

It is not late for them to tender their services now, and I have no shadow of doubt that, if such services were tendered, they will be gratefully accepted by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek or any of his subordinate officers.

Apart from medical service, notwithstanding my old age, I have recently taken the trouble to go round the town at night to the usual places of entertainment, and it has pained me considerably to see hundreds, if not thousands, of well-dressed young men of my country who daily frequent the entertainment area of the Colony, spending their money right and left. These young men who are all able-bodied and of military age, should also be at the front to fight China's cause.

Perhaps some members of the Hongkong Y's Men's Club should start the ball rolling by enlisting their services to China for so great a cause, and thus encourage a great many others to follow their would-be brilliant and patriotic example.

OLD HONGKONG CHINESE RESIDENT.

Hongkong, Oct. 28.

were not withdrawn, so the President Coolidge sailed minus the silver.

It would appear that, some time ago, the puppet "Reformed Government" at Nanking, the "Minister of Finance" of which is the Cantonese Confucian scholar and financier, Chen Chin-tao, issued a decree forbidding the export of bullion without permit. An order to this effect was served on the Shanghai Chinese Customs authorities. The validity of such an order is seriously questioned as the "Reformed Government" has not been recognized.

A QUAIN INTERPRETATION of the word "recognition" is given in this regard by the Japanese official spokesman in Shanghai, who, when questioned as to whether the right to institute the procedure had been recognized.

RECOGNITION to institute the procedure had been recognized by the foreign Powers, stated that recognition was afforded by the fact that foreign nationals were paying the "Reformed" Customs tariff, instituted by the "Reformed Government," a view which, of course, is absurd to the extreme and holds no water, since the foreign public only submitted to the change under protest.

THE POWERS HAVE REFUSED to have any dealings with the so-called "Reformed Government" and it is of interest to note that even Japan herself had not yet officially recognized her Nanking puppets.

Reverting, however, to the removal of the silver from the President Coolidge it now remains to be seen whether Washington is going to allow herself to be bluffed or whether she will stand STAND for America's rights WATCHED by insisting that cargo legally shipped on board an American vessel should not be allowed to be interfered with by a nation engaged in an undeclared war. Her stand will be watched with interest. China will not be hard hit as a result of this interference on the

SOUP KITCHEN POLICY TO BE EXTENDED

Refugee Council Decision

At a general meeting of the Emergency Refugee Council, held in St. John's Cathedral Hall on Thursday afternoon, the Council decided that the present soup kitchen policy should be continued and extended; that when he had further information from Canton we should be prepared to assist the Refugee Committee there under Dr. Henry with food, clothing and medical supplies.

The meeting agreed in principle to a small housing scheme for refugees on the basis of the refugee tenants paying a low rent, the details of the scheme to be worked out by the Executive Committee.

It was announced that the Emergency Refugee Council had already undertaken social service work at the camp at Kam Tin and Father Ryan made an appeal that the individual Social Service organisations constituting the Council should assist the Social Service work to be carried out in the Government camps by providing the committee with voluntary and paid helpers for educational, infant welfare and all forms of craft work.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR NOT TO MEDIATE Continued Resistance To Japan Urged

London, October 28.

There is no question of the British Ambassador in China, Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, having been instructed to sound Marshal Chiang Kai-shek as regards mediation. Reuter learns from excellent authority. It is recalled that the Generalissimo suggested that the Ambassador see him when he toured again. Observers in London do not consider that the fall of Hankow and Canton means the end of Chinese resistance.

There is no indication of Britain sending a note to Japan similar to the one sent by the United States. British policy is to take up individual incidents as they occur with the appropriate authorities. Sir Robert Craigie, the Ambassador in Tokyo, also from time to time takes up more serious occurrences with the Japanese Foreign Minister or Premier.—Reuter.

HONGKONG GROUPS URGE RESISTANCE

Eight local Chinese organisations, including the Hongkong branch of the National Women's Relief Association and the Hongkong Chinese Women's Club, yesterday sent a joint telegram to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek pledging support.

SECOND PLENARY SESSION

Chairman of the People's Political Council, Mr. Lin Sen and also Mr. Yu Yu-jen, President of the Control Yuan.

After the singing of the national anthem, Mr. Wang Ching-wei spoke and concluded by reading two telegrams sent by the Council to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and to the soldiers at the front expressing loyalty and confidence.

The next two days will be devoted to reports on recent progress made in the political, foreign, military and internal affairs while the period November 1 to November 6 will be devoted to discussions and conferences.

Free and frank discussion and actions in certain ministries are expected to be provided for in the Council's constitution.—Reuter.

CHAIRMAN ENTERTAINS MEMBERS

Chungking, Oct. 28. Mr. Lin Sen, Chairman of the National Government, entertained members of the People's Political Council in session here at a tea reception this afternoon.

Led by Mr. Wang Ching-wei and Dr. Chang Po-lin, Chairman and Vice-Chairman, respectively, of the Council, more than 100 members attended in the reception hall of the National Government building.

Leading members of the National Government, including Dr. H. H. Kung, Mr. Yu Yu-jen, President of the Control Yuan, Mr. Chu Cheng, President of the Judicial Yuan, Dr. Wang Chung-hui, Dr. Wong Wen-hao, and others were also invited.

Mr. Lin paid a glowing tribute to the members and their sterling work in the course of the reception. On behalf of the members, Mr. Wang Ching-wei then thanked the aged Chief Executive for the reception.—Central News.

ANTHONY EDEN ON REARMAMENT

London, Oct. 28.

Mr. Anthony Eden, speaking in London last night, urged that great national effort should be made to secure effective rearmament and urged that the co-operation of all parties should be sought in the Government that would give expression to national unity.—British Wireless.

EXPENDITURE QUESTION

London, Oct. 28.

Mr. Walter Elliot, Minister of Health, in a speech last night referred to rearmaments needs and their cost. He added that to meet the expenditure it may be that they would have to make inroads in great social services. They would do so with great regret, because "we shall be hindering things we want to preserve."—British Wireless.

Full Text Of American Note To Japan

Washington, October 28.

"The Government of the United States had frequent occasion to make representation to Your Excellency's Government in regard to action taken in the policies carried out in China under the Japanese authority," the Note delivered by the American Ambassador, Mr. Grew, to the Japanese Government, begins.

The Note adds, "Notwithstanding the assurances of the Japanese Government, violations by Japanese agencies of American rights and interests have persisted."

The Note then cites the Japanese Government's assurance and points out that this was not done. The Japanese had been given preferred position and the Americans were forced out.

The Note explains that this channeling movement of goods effected primarily the means of exchange control under the Exchange Law which provides expressly that Japan should not be considered a foreign country.

NOW APPREHENSIVE

The Note adds, "The United States Government is now apprehensive, lest there develop in other areas in China occupied by Japanese military forces since the beginning of the present hostilities, a situation, similar in adverse effect on the competitive position of American business, to that which now exists in Manchukuo."

The Note then tells of the exchange control established by the Japanese at Tsingtao where the American dealer was unable to do business because the authorities insisted that the export bill be sold at a Japanese bank at a rate so far below the current rate of exchange in the open market that he was faced with a loss, but the Japanese competitor was given the current rate.

MONOPOLIES

The Note cites the monopolies proposed by the China Telephone and Telegraph Company in Peking, the Central Tele-Communications Company in Shanghai, also the Shanghai Inland Navigation Steamship Company and mentions Japanese monopoly in the wool and tobacco trade in North China. The American Note also calls attention to "the unwarranted restrictions placed by Japanese military authorities upon American nationals in China which further subject American interests to continuing serious inconvenience and hardship."

The Note refers especially to restrictions against Americans returning to property from whence they were driven by the hostilities and mentions Japanese censorship and interference of American mail and telegrams in Shanghai, and restrictions upon the freedom of trade, residence and travel, including the use of railways, shipping, etc., on the Lower Yangtze.

The Note declares, "In Japan, too, American trade and other interests are undergoing severe hardships as the result of industrial trade exchange and other controls the Japanese Government imposed in its military operations in China."

PROMPT MEASURES

The Note concludes by asking the Japanese Government to implement its assurances regarding the "open door" by taking prompt and effective measures to cause the discontinuance of discriminatory exchange control and other measures against American trade enterprise, any monopoly or preference depriving American nationals' legitimate trade or arrangements favouring Japanese commercial and economic development; interference by Japanese authorities in China with American property and other rights, including censorship of mail and telegrams and restrictions of residence, travel, trade and shipping.—Reuter.

AMERICA MAY PLACE JAPAN ON BLACK LIST

Countervailing Measures Centre Of Speculation

London, October 28.

THE AMERICAN NOTE TO JAPAN is featured at length in the principal papers and given great prominence in the entire British press.

The "Times" Washington correspondent says that speculation and discussion in Washington are now centred on countervailing measures at America's disposal if Japan does not give satisfaction.

The correspondent in Washington of the "Daily Telegraph" says that it is expected that the United States Government may place Japan on the black list of nations which do not enjoy reduction of the Hawley-Smoot tariff.

Germany is already thus penalised for discriminatory trade policies.

Application of the American Neutrality Act is also canvassed, which, it is pointed out, will no longer hamper China. The chief ports are now under Japanese control.

The "Manchester Guardian" says that coming so soon after Japan's announcement that she shall need the aid of foreign powers in setting China on her feet, the message is regarded as an indication that the United States Government will take part in no such action without a clear definition of the rights and immunities of foreign Governments compatible with the traditional "open door."—Reuter.

cluded at the point of Japanese bayonet. The integrity of internal administration of even a defeated state, such as France after the Franco-Prussian War and Germany after the Great War, is essential to its eventual renaissance.

The garrisoning of China's strategic points by Japanese troops would be tantamount to conquest in the manner of the Manchurian garrisoning of the Chinese provinces. The purpose is to completely disarm the Chinese as a people and reduce them to slavery.

PROSECUTION OF WAR

west of the Peiping-Hankow Railway and the Canton-Hankow Railway.

Judging by what had come to pass in the last year, it appeared that everything had turned out as expected. Especially in the last half year, all military schemes in the Japanese-occupied areas had been completed and political centres established.

Preparations to the west of the Peiping-Hankow Railway and the Canton-Hankow Railway had also been fully made. In fact, everything in the military situation was turning out in accordance with China's strategy for winning the final victory, General Chiang remarked.

DIFFICULTIES AHEAD

However, he issued a warning against relaxation of efforts in this supreme struggle for national existence. Forecasting great difficulties ahead, he urged the whole nation to exert their utmost efforts and make whatever sacrifices were necessary to continue resistance in accordance with pre-conceived plans.

Ending his message, the Generalissimo asked members of the Council carefully to deliberate upon the national situation, to draw up recommendations for submission to the Government during the session and to lead the people to continue the struggle against the enemy after adjournment.

JAPANESE YEN DECLINE

PEOPLE WEARY OF WAR

Shanghai, Oct. 28.

Tokyo reports state that the yen has declined slightly when it should have gone up upon the fall of Hankow and Canton.

This depreciation is due to the general weariness of the people with reference to the war. They are now told that hostilities will continue indefinitely even after the Japanese occupation of these two cities.

The economic structure of Japan is much shaken by the repeated flotation of bonds.

Japan at the moment is more anxious for peace than China. The agitation for the suspension of hostilities by puppet officials in Peiping are entirely inspired by the Japanese.—International News.

SANDPIPER NOT OBJECTIVE

Japanese Denial In Communiqué

Hankow, Oct. 28.

A denial of the British contention that six Japanese bombers made H.M.S. Sandpiper their objective in a raid on the Changsha area on Oct. 24 was contained in a communiqué issued by the Japanese Imperial Headquarters.

The communiqué presumes that splinters of bombs aimed at Chinese Junk which, it says, were the

Guerillas Everywhere Harass Japanese

Chungking, October 28.

Rampant Chinese guerilla activities in areas on the north bank of the Yangtze River in Kiangsu are reported in a Shanghai message just received here. It is stated that following their recent reorganisation, the guerillas are intensifying their operations at Nan-tung, Jukao, Tsungning, Haimen and Chitung, launching surprise attacks on the Japanese.

They have recovered Haimen, Chitung and Jukao, it is revealed and are now engaged in severe fighting with the invaders at Nan-tung and Tsungning.

Tsingliang and Yangchow, along the river west of Nan-tung, are also about to fall to the guerillas.—Central News.

HOTSIN ENCOUNTER

Sian, Oct. 28.

During a chance encounter with a Chinese guerilla column at Changtun and Shao-yuan, near Hotsin in southwest Shansi, on October 23, a Japanese unit was defeated, suffering more than 60 casualties, reveals a belated military report. The Chinese suffered only three wounded.—Central News.

FIERCE FIGHTING IN CHAHAR CITIES

Loyang, Oct. 28.

Fierce fighting between Chinese guerillas and Japanese troops has been in progress during the past week at a number of places along the Peiping-Sutuan Railway in Chahar, according to military dispatches received here.

On October 22, it is revealed, a strong column of Chinese guerillas clashed with more than 800 Japanese at Cholu, southeast of Hsuanhua. After relentless assaults, the Chinese succeeded in breaking into the city and engaged the Japanese in bitter street fighting. Heavy casualties were inflicted on the Japanese.

On the following day, the Chinese retired as the Japanese rushed 3,000 reinforcements there from Yuhshien, in south Chahar.

Sanguinary fighting was also reported from Hsuanhua and Kailan, provincial capital of Chahar now under Japanese occupation.—Central News.

Moreover, the communiqué states that Japanese planes belonging to another unit had previously made reconnaissance flight over Changsha area and observed no signs indicating that British gunboats were there.—Reuter.

BIG VICTORY FOR CHINESE

Fierce Engagement At Leitashan

Tungshan, Hsueh, Oct. 28.

About 800 casualties were inflicted upon the Japanese in a battle at Leitashan and Maan-shan, two hills 20 kilometres to the southwest of Tachai on the south banks of the Yangtze River on Wednesday, according to military advices.

A detachment of the Japanese 104th Division opened the attack on Tuesday morning. Bitter fighting continued until nightfall when the contending forces each occupied half of the hills.

Fighting was renewed the following day. Enveloping the enemy from three directions, the Chinese scored a brilliant victory.

The Japanese later called up heavy reinforcements, and started a fresh thrust under an intense artillery barrage. The Chinese voluntarily withdrew from the hills to avoid the heavy shelling.—Central News.

TRAFFICKING IN GIRLS

Further evidence was heard at the Central Court yesterday when two women, Chu Pa-chu and Chau Lo-sam, appeared before Mr. E. B. Butters on remand on charges in connection with trafficking in women and girls.

Mr. J. B. Prentiss, Assistant Crown Solicitor, was in charge of the prosecution, while Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios was for the defence.

Chu Lai-let and Chau Ma-let, two of the girls concerned in the case, alleged they had been forced to come to Hongkong to practice prostitution.

The hearing was adjourned till Monday afternoon.

SOFTBALL NOTES

Two Ladies' Matches

(BY R. O. Y.)

Two ladies games and three league matches will constitute the softball programme for this week-end. At 11:30 a.m., the Chinese Girls will meet the Central British Ladies at the C.B.A. ground, and at the same time, the ladies' sections of the Filipino Club and the Club de Recreo, will clash on the Filipino ground.

The first league game, at 12:30 p.m., will see the C.B.A. "Hotdogs," who have shown vast improvement since the beginning of the season, in an effort to upset the local champions.

The Chinese Baseball Club are at present holding the most unbalanced team in the league, their outfield is as weak as their infield is strong, but are favoured to retain their percentage of 1.000.

Neither of the starters in the second game, have yet registered a win. The Trojans and St. Joseph's College are the babies of the league, from the experience point of view, and the losers will probably have the doubtful honour of being wooden spoonists.

As the students have been responsible for some fairly good performances, they should be able to chalk up their first points of the season.

Recreo will come to grips with the Filipino Club in the ultimate event, and bearing in mind their excellent showing against the C.B.A., should provide the Filipino boys with plenty of opposition, providing, of course, they are at full strength.

The Filipino squad, after having been described as one of the strongest of local teams, will go all out to redeem their reputation, but much will depend on their hurlers. If Amper and Loyok pitch as they did in their previous appearance, they are apt to be penalized for illegal pitching if the umpire is at all strict about the application of the rules.

At a meeting of the H.K. Softball League on Wednesday evening, final arrangements were made for the visit of the American girls team who were due to arrive on November 3. Local fans will be disappointed to learn that advice have been received intimating that this squad sailed from Japan direct for Manila on the s.s. "Radnorshire," and it is doubtful if they will come to the colony, after all.

On the offchance that the girls may return to the States via Hongkong, the league selection committee will go ahead with the choosing of the two local teams who were to meet the tourists, so that the local teams may get some practice, should the visit eventually materialize.

The league has decided to invite entries to the ladies competition, the closing date for which will be November 15. The entrance fee has been set at $7.00 per team; this charge, it is estimated, will just about cover the cost of balls.

TO-DAY'S RUGBY GAMES

There will be two games of rugby football on the Army ground at Sookunpoo to-day. In the first game, which will commence at 3 p.m., H.M.S. Dorsetshire will play the Club "A" XV. This match will be followed at 4.15 p.m. by one between the Army and the Club First XV.

The Club sides have been selected as follows:

FIRST XV—M. W. MacGrath, D. H. Stewart, W. E. Grieve, M. G. Carruthers, H. van Leeuwen, F. Cassford, E. C. Luscombe, T. H. Pratt, K. W. Salter, K. A. Watson, G. J. E. Carey, E. W. Stout, J. Redman, A. J. G. Taylor (Captain) and W. H. Richardson.

"A" XV—J. H. Henderson, C. J. Powell, E. Tavernier, F. M. Thompson, D. B. Nelson, G. S. Wilson, R. Rutherford, K. H. G. White, J. S. Dunnett (Captain), W. G. Schunabel, R. E. H. Nelson, G. M. Morris, R. Leigh, A. G. Dalziel and P. W. Burton.

CRICKET NOTES

Joint Champions' First Clash

(BY "NEW L. B. W.")

According to the present programme, there are seven friendly cricket matches down for to-day, three in the First and four in the Second Division. The most interesting game should be that between the joint champions, Indian Recreation Club and Craighower Cricket Club, on the former's ground.

Neither team is at full strength, but each is putting out a strong enough eleven and a good match should result. Craighower will be handicapped by the absence of Ernie Zimmerman, but this is more than offset by the fact that A. R. Minu, the Indian skipper, is not playing.

The other two games in the senior division, between Kowloon and Civil Service, and Navy and Club de Recreo, should also produce some good cricket.

TEAM OF SURPRISES

C.S.C.C. did quite well against the Indians last week, and should the K.C.C. batting slip, as it did against the Club, they might conceivably find themselves beaten. The fact that Recreo put it across the Indians two weeks ago is no sure guarantee that they will do likewise to the Navy, for the latter are themselves a team of surprises. One of the best fielding sides in the Colony, with two bowlers of indomitable spirit, plus good support, and a very useful batting side, Recreo should go far in the League this season.

THE JUNIORS

The most open game in the junior division would appear to be the Recreo-Police encounter. The Police will be playing on a ground almost twice the size of their home pasture, but this should not be too great a handicap to mighty smilers such as they possess. I fancy they will just about do it.

Civil Service versus University is another match where the outcome is hard to predict, but on present form the Undergrads should win. Kowloon are almost certain to beat the Central British School, and Craighower juniors should avenge the defeat which I rather think their seniors will sustain at the hands of the Indians.

LEAGUE SOCCER FIXTURES

The following are the League football fixtures for this week-end:

FIRST DIVISION

Club v Royal Scots
Kowloon v S. China "B"
Police v St. Joseph's
S. China "A" v Royal Navy

KOTEWALL CUP FOOTBALL

The first round of the "Kotewall Cup" competition will be played to-morrow at Caroline Hill commencing at 4.15 p.m. between teams representing The Royal Navy and The Army.

The following have been selected to represent the Royal Navy:

Hong Kong, 27th Oct., 1938. [1897]PORTUGAL AND COLONIESPirow's Visit Stirs
Interest

London, Oct. 28.

The visit to Portugal of the South African Defence Minister, Mr. Oswald Pirow, is being followed with interest in view of Germany's colonial claims.

A Lisbon message says that despite reports from abroad, opinion in well-informed circles is that the Government will not discuss the question with Mr. Pirow, as the former holds that the German claims are no concern of Portugal's, whose territorial possessions in Africa were not acquired from Germany or any other country, but discovered by her centuries ago.

The Prime Minister, Dr. Salazar, is also taking Herr Hitler at his word when he says that Germany is not interested in colonial possessions not belonging to her before the Great War.

What may emerge from Mr. Pirow's talks is the understanding that Portugal, through her colonies, will render South Africa any possible assistance in the event of South Africa being attacked by a foreign Power.—Reuter.

FIERCE ATTACK

Berlin, Oct. 28.

An article in the newspaper "Der Angriff" under the heading "Governments in Hiding" fiercely attacks the demonstrations in former German colonies in South and South East Africa against the return of these territories to Germany.

"Der Angriff" declares: "We are watching this activity, and must face the fact that they are of a comic character. Persons in these organisations are those who have made millions, and consequently fear they might lose their easy source of income if the situation should change."—Reuter.

HALLOWEEN
